The course of study at the College will, however, be such that, should a boy fail in the competitive examination for admission to a cadet college or for entry in the Royal Indian Navy, he will be in a favourable position for entry to a university as if he had been educated at an ordinary school.

(2) Candidates will be selected from unmarried Indian and Anglo-Indian boys of—

No. F.-13 (6) Ex. I/35.—In supersession of this Department Resolution No. F.-13(3) Ex I/34, dated the 31st of May 1934, the following revised rules, which are liable to alteration from year to year are prescribed for the examination to be held in November 1935, for admission to the Indian Audit and Accounts Service, the Military Accounts Department and the Indian Railway Accounts Service:—

1. A competitive examination for admission to the Indian Audit and Accounts Service, the Military Accounts Department and the Indian Railway Accounts Service, shall be held in India at such time as the Governor General in Council may direct.

2. The maximum number of candidates to be admitted to the examination may, at the discretion of the Governor General in Council, be limited to such number not being less than 200, as the Governor General in Council may decide. If the number of candidates exceeds that limit, the Public Service Commission shall select from among the applicants those who shall be admitted to the examination and in doing so shall have regard to the suitability of the applicants and to the adequate representation of the various provinces and communities of India.

3 (i) A candidate must apply to be admitted to the examination before such date, and in such form, and manner as the Public Service Commission may prescribe.

(ii) If a candidate is in Government service at the date of his application, he shall apply through the Head of his Department, either—

(b) a ruler or a subject of a State in India;

Provided that in the case of a male British subject the requirements of this rule may be waived by Government if satisfied that their observance would occasion exceptional hardship, and that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry or upbringing with His Majesty's Dominions as to justify special treatment.
